Film: Cuba Va

Wednesday • July 27 • 7:30pm

"A must view for all of us who are concerned, or simply curious, or deeply care." —Alice Walker/author

"In Cuba Va, Gail Dolgin and Vicente Franco have precipitated a lively and urgent debate that raises provocative questions that become more complex in the asking." — Laurence Kardish/Sundance Film Festival

The collapse of socialism in Europe combined with the 33 year economic embargo imposed by the United States has thrown Cuba into its most serious crisis since 1959. Cuban youth are key players in determining the outcome. Cuba Va: The Challenge of the Next Generation is told without narration in order to preserve the integrity and dynamism of young Cubans speaking for themselves. A brief historical segment provides a background platform from which to view the present situation.

Since 1975, more than 500 community groups have used La Peña's facilities. The use of our space by these organizations does not mean that La Peña endorses the views presented. La Peña feels that it is important to help stimulate an environment conducive to discussion and understanding among different peoples.
